ACTIVITIES

Smiling in scare, laughing in fear – Halloween

Children were involved in making different handicrafts associated with this event, which was full of fun and thrill. They made characters like little monsters, pumpkin, ghosts, witches etc. All the children were dressed in Halloween costumes to celebrate this day. Apart from the various acts by teachers, magic show was also arranged, which these little ones enjoyed to the brim.

Fancy Dress Competition

This activity was organised with the idea to blend learning with fun which has helped to build the confidence, and aided students in speaking and expressing themselves with clarity. Dressed up as cartoon characters, fruits, vegetables, rhyme, and fairy tale characters the tiny tots had a fun-filled day.

Learning through giving is a joy Forever – Christmas Carnival

This day was celebrated with colour, fervour and enthusiasm with our little bells and bobs to spread happiness and jubilation. The magic of Carnival was quite evident in their cheerful and enthralling performances.

Commemorating the greater bond – Grandparents' Day

Honouring the grandparents – family's greatest treasure and the founder of loving legacy and children's best story tellers, the day was dedicated by the Pre-Primary students to celebrate the bond between them and their grandparents.

Handwriting Competition

Good handwriting is a beautiful work of art. To appreciate that 'Apsara' had organised this event for the children of Classes I and II.

Rejuvenating with perspiration – Sports Day

Other than academics, the school has always emphasised on physical activities to encourage the sportsmanship spirit and strength. More than 1500 children participated, in different events to bring glory to themselves and to their House.

Idolising Strength of the Magnanimous – Durga Puja

The magnanimous vision of 'Mahishashur Mardini' was executed through dance-drama with much exuberance and vigour by the students of V-VIII. The children, decked up in beautiful costumes welcomed 'Ma' in their own special way.

Illuminating the lighted ways – Diwali Celebration

The eventual defeat of Ravana is celebrated with the festival of lights. The children of Pre-Primary classes celebrated triumph over evil by illuminating our lives with lights of joy and sparks of buoyance.

Children's Day
